

SPRING
2020
OPEN TO ALL

Reconciliation: Implications for Settler Peoples

AT RENISON UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

PROFESSOR KELLY LAURILA

Learn more about...

- Connecting to the 'other' story of the settlement of Canada
- Relating to Indigenous knowledge and ways of being, seeing, knowing, doing
- What it means to be a Settler in the context of reconciliation
- Implications for the journey forward and together

This non-degree course will be facilitated by Kelly Laurila. Kelly is of Saami Indigenous (Northern Finland) and Settler Irish heritages. Using primarily a sharing circle format participants are invited the conversation of what it means to be part of the reconciliation process. Everyone in the community is welcome!

Thursdays, 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm, April 15 to June 3

Registration deadline April 3, 2020 | uwaterloo.ca/cape/register

240 Westmount Road N.
Waterloo ON
519-884-4404 x28659
cape@uwaterloo.ca

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

RENISON
UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

AFFILIATED WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO